ABUNDANCE OF WATER AT ALTADENA TRACT

When speaking of the advantages of Altadena Country Club Park Tract over other tracts to the north of Pasadena, one of the big features emphasized is the abundance of pure mountain water that is available. All of the homes here are surrounded with beautiful grounds, spacious green stretches of lawns and shrubbery. Naturally such beautiful and effective landscaping requires plenty of water. Then again the wonderful orchards that have been planted need a sure supply of water for irrigation—all raheir water needs have been amply taken care of in that the city of Pasadona owns the Pasadena Consolidated Water Company and also controls all the vote rights of the Eaton Canyon Water Company. In speaking of these improvements and the value to the home builder that they will mean. H. L. Glanetti, vice-president and manager of the Hogan Company, owners of Altadena Country Club Park Tract, says, "The assurance of this additional water supply means a great deal to us. It means that future homebuilders here will be assured of plenty of good pure mountain water for the care of Naturally such beautiful and ef-
