

---

Benjamin C. Sheldon, the republican nominee for alderman from the second ward, is leaving no stone unturned to prove the falsity of stories connecting him with corporate influences, which have been so industriously circulated by the opposition. A meeting will be held this evening at the home of Professor George D. Shepardson, 717 East River parkway, to which any citizen of the ward who has any misgivings on that score is invited.

---