

Cunningham Improving.

George Cunningham, the young real estate man stabbed by W. W. Garvin Monday afternoon during a quarrel, is believed to be out of danger. Unless complications arise, he will be able to leave the hospital in about a month. The robust constitution of the young Kentuckian, an athlete of massive frame, is decidedly in his favor. Garvin has been admitted to bail and will be examined on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon as soon as Cunningham is able to appear in the Police Court.
