

Tennis Club Changes Name

The name of the Palomar Tennis Club has been changed to the Pacific Coast Tennis Club, it was learned yesterday. The Pacific Coast Tennis Club will sponsor its first tournament under its new name when the twenty-first annual midwinter tennis championships are held from Monday, the 26th inst., through Saturday, the 31st inst. The tourney is sanctioned by both the United States and Southern California Tennis associations.

Eight events will be held, including men's singles and doubles, women's singles, mixed doubles, junior boys' and girls' singles and boys' and girls' 15 and under singles. Art Park, professional in charge, announced that entries will close Saturday, the 24th inst.

WALES BESTS IRELAND IN SOCCER CLASH, 4-1

WREXHAM (Wales) Dec. 7. (A)—Wales today defeated Ireland at soccer, four goals to one, holding the lead throughout.

It was Ireland's fourth international defeat this year and the second victory in three matches for Wales. Wales and England played a scoreless tie in their annual fixture and Wales defeated Scotland, 5-2.

Gilbert Widens Gap for Honors

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 7. (A)—Johnny Gilbert, youthful riding sensation from Pittsburg, Kan., went five up on his equally young rival from Colorado, Hank Mills, in their duel for the season's jockey honors today. Gilbert booted home three winners at Jefferson Park, while Mills couldn't finish ahead once. Today's triple gave Gilbert 187 winners for the season against 182 for Mills. Gilbert scored on Buck Hero, Camp Boss and Ricciardo.