

Ginny Simms Made Company Director

Ginny Simms, screen and radio star, has been named vice-president and director of the Montana Corp., which is opening a new subdivision at Palm Springs, near the Torney General Army Hospital.

The corporation was formed by Miss Simms' husband, Hyatt Robert Dehn, founder-president of the Defense Housing Corp.

Miss Simms, who often entertains at Torney General Hospital, reports that the acute housing shortage at Palm Springs is largely due to the influx of wives of hospitalized veterans.
