

Westwood Shopping Center Bids Asked

WESTWOOD. — Bids for construction of the first three buildings in a $5,000,000 shopping district to be called Pico-Westwood business center are to be received immediately, the owners, oilmen Edwin W. Pauley and Harold Pauley announced today.

Planned to include department, chain, variety and specialty stores and shops, the new business district will extend along 1600 feet of frontage on the south side of Pico Blvd. between Overland and Midvale Aves. and bisected by Westwood Boulevard. A theater is to be constructed on a site sold previously to other interests.

Three buildings worth $1,250,000 will comprise the first unit and will be occupied by the Owl Drug Co., Von's Grocery Co. and the J. J. Newberry Co.
