

IT'S OFFICIAL — Papers, which started construction for the new May Co. West Los Angeles at Pico and Overland Blvds., were signed recently. Present were, front from left, Edwin W. Pauley, owner of the property, and David May, executive vice president of May Co. Standing, from left, are Tom May, chairman of the board, and Louis D. Waldman, May Co. vice president. Photo below is artist's drawing of new store with completion scheduled for August of 1964. The store will consist of three levels with home furnishings on the upper level, fashion departments on the middle level and May Mart Basement on the lower level.

