

Veteran teachers to retire

Ten local teachers will retire June 30 when the Los Angeles school system ends its 1965-66 school year. Some will be terminating careers of more than 20 years in the system.

Concluding careers in local elementary schools are Mrs. Irma Griffiths of Mar Vista School and Mrs. Elizabeth Kearney of Stoner Avenue School. Mrs. Griffiths has taught at Mar Vista since 1926 and Mrs. Kearney has completed 25 years at Stoner.

At Palms Junior High School Mrs. Karine Jaffray, Mrs. Moran J. Perrochet and Dan Johnson will retire. All have been at the school more than 20 years.

Mrs. Pauline Bogart will retire after 42 years at Hamilton High School as will Miss Anna Mae Mason, who has been at the school since 1923.

Retiring teachers from Venice High School are Cornelius Bennett, who has been at Venice 21 years and Miss Beatrice Phelps, who has taught at the school 23 years.

Mrs. Grace Brotherton, who has taught for 23 years at Westchester High School also will retire.
