

Citizen-News Wednesday, April 8, 1964 • Page A-5

Celebrities To Compete In Tourney

The Renaissance League is sponsoring the International Motion Picture Tennis Championships to be played at the Standard Club, Cheviot Hills, on April 11 and 12, with the final tournament on April 18 and 19.

The tennis matches, which will commence at 1 p.m. on April 11 and 12 and also at 1 p.m. for the finals on April 18 and 19, will be emceed by James Garner with Frank Feltrop, tennis pro of the Standard Club, serving as tournament director.

Jack Broder, president of the Standard Club, and Tommy Cook, tennis pro are coordinating the event with Frank Feltrop and Mrs. Anthony Di Bianca, president of the Renaissance League.

Film celebrities who have signed up to participate in the motion picture championship matches are Jack Palance, Richard Chamberlain, Charlton Heston, Bill Burrud, Janet Leigh, Constance Towers, Keith Larsen, Rhonda Fleming, Dinah Shore, Sara Shane, Howard Duff, Robert Wagner, Richard Egan, MacDonald Carey, Vera Miles, Lloyd Bridges, Peter Brown, Walter Pidgeon, Richard Anderson, Michael Dante, Karen Steele, Barbara Stuart, Julie Redding, Sherry Jackson and Cindy Robbins.

In addition to mixed doubles on April 19, starting at 1 p.m., an exhibition match will be presented, with Robert Stack, Rod Laver, 1963 Australian grand slam champion; Efram Zimbalist Jr. and Tony Trabert, former world amateur champion and Davis Cup star.

Proceeds from the tournament will go to the Meyers Psychiatric Clinic to build a wing for emotionally disturbed children. The clinic at 724 S. Park View St., is a non-profit community out-patient organization, in operation since 1943 and unique in that it handles every kind of mental health problem.

TENNIS, ANYONE?—Members of the Renaissance League are sponsoring the International Motion Picture Tennis Championships at the Standard Club to be held on April 11 and 12 with the final tournament on April 18 and 19, and serving on the committee are, from left, Mrs. Stewart Melchione, Mrs. Conlin Parker and Tommy Cook, tennis pro.

NEW FEATURES AT RATHBUNS

Taking advantage of the recently completed half-million dollar expansion and modernization of the pioneer Valley department store in Downtown North Hollywood, Rathbuns continues presenta-

Service League Meets Friday

Children's Service League members will meet on April 10 at noon at the Los Angeles home of Mrs. David J. Davis III, for a luncheon and election of officers meeting. Installation of officers to be held