

Film Industry Golf Tourney Entries Listed

Packed with names widely known in the sports and entertainment world, pairings for Frank Borzage's film industry golf tournament, slated for Sunday at Rolling Hills, were announced yesterday.

Among the topflight golfers who have entered are Joe Kirkwood Jr., son of golf's trick shot artist; Bruce McCormick, Tom McAvity, Bob Simmers, Henry Batista, Forrest Tucker, John Montague and others.

The film industry entries read like a Who's Who of Hollywood, with Crooner-Golfer Bing Crosby heading the list. Der Bingle won't have his pal (?) Bob Hope around to help him out, but Bob's absence never seems to bother Bing.

Other Big Names

Other big names in the entertaining business entered include Dennis O'Keefe, Johnny Mercer, Ira Gershwin, Horace Heidt, Leo Gorcey, Reginald Owen, Ray Bolger, Ken Murray, Adolph Menjou, Charles Winniger, Henry O'Neill and many others.

Maurie Luxford, Southern California P.G.A. tourney chairman, predicts one of the largest galleries ever to attend a Southland links tournament will be on hand. Maybe the approximately 30 feminine stars and starlets, who will be scorekeepers, have some thing to do with that.
