

George W. Somerville

Christian Science services for George W. Somerville, 79 years of age, retired attorney, former Minnesota Senator and Los Angeles clubman, were conducted at 3 p.m. yesterday from the Little Church of the Flowers under direction of the Forest Lawn mortuary. Mr. Somerville died last Friday at his home, 2414 Eighth avenue. He had lived in California since he retired in 1910, was a Mason and Shriner and belonged to the Los Angeles Athletic Club, the California Club and the San Gabriel Country Club. He leaves his widow and four children.