

CLUB ASKS NEW NAME.

Says Present Title Confuses It With Realty Business.

The Culver City Country Club petitioned the courts yesterday, to change the name to the California Country Club. The reason assigned is that it has ceased to be a local club and is confused with Culver City real estate business. The petitioners are Harry H. Culver, George W. Somerville, John D. Carson, George D. Bavin, William F. McShane, D. A. Hamburger and Harry W. McNutt.
