WIFE OF GOV. STEPHENS'S CAMPAIGN MANAGER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

Funeral services for Mrs. Carrie E. Hughes, wife of Thomas Hughes, manager of Gov. Stephens's campaign, will be conducted at 3 p.m. today by Rev. Baker P. Lee of Pierce Bros. chapel. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

The pallbearers will be Robert N. Bulla, Frank D. Owen, Lester L. Robinson, Owen McAleer, Ed Strsburg and A. L. King. The honorary pallbearers will be Mayor Woodman, Judge N. P. Conrey, Joe S. Crail, E. J. Delorey, R. F. McClellan, A. W. Kinney, W. S. Allen, R. W. Burnhan, W. R. Dickinson, Sidney Haskell, G. M. Griffin, M. A. Gould, A. O. Kelliher, John W. Kemp, John B. Reeves, E. A. Doran, Dr. William Dodge and Charles H. Treat.

Mrs. Hughes was formerly Carrie E. Sweet. She was born in Chautauqua county, New York, but knew not her birth date. When she was a young child her parents died and she went to live with relatives. Shortly afterward the municipal records were destroyed by fire and the date of Mrs. Hughes's birth was lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were married in 1881. She was a member of the Ebell and Friday Morning clubs and was loved and admired by a great number of the club women of the city. Mrs. Hughes had been ill for two years and for the last eight months was confined to her bed. She was forced to go to the California Hospital a few weeks ago, where she died. The Hughes home, Vista del Mar, is at Palms.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Hughes leaves a sister, Mrs. Sadie Ryan of this city. There were no children.
