

Grade Project Fund Is Asked

An appropriation of $5500 was asked of the county board of supervisors yesterday by Los Angeles city council to provide for construction of a grade separation at Motor avenue and the Pacific Electric Airline tracks in Palms, part of the projected opening and widening of Motor avenue from the tracks to Manning avenue in Cheviot Hills.