

Kay Murray's Aquatic School Offers Service

Gymnastic activities in a newly completed gymnasium have been added this year to the swimming program at Kay Murray's Aquatic School located at 3000 Overland Avenue in West Los Angeles.

Boys and girls from ages 7 to 13 will participate in the educational summer program which will include a combination of body building, rhythms, tumbling, swimming instruction, and other activities.

Mr. Murray, a teacher of physical education at Emerson Junior High School, has selected a staff of highly competent teachers to help with the summer program. Each teacher has had experience in teaching swimming and other aspects of the program.

Girls will enjoy the water ballet course under the instruction of Mrs. Dorothy Stoddard, who has coached ballet and swim teams for many years.

The Aquatic School also sponsors a Summer Day Camp program for boys from ages 8 to 11.

Members of the summer staff include: Kay Wm. Murray, BA Occidental College, MA USC, teacher of physical education, L.A. City Schools; John L.
